

Marie Black - [REDACTED]

7th November 2015.

Dear Mr Baron,

Thank you for your letter dated 8th October in relation to my case and recent sentencing.

I am in the process of two appeals, against both convictions and sentence. I'm currently awaiting to hear from the Court of appeal to see if I have leave to appeal.

In the meantime I'm very anxious and my support network is growing, I have three MP's looking into my case as well.

The two links you have published about my case, unfortunately I am unable to read them because I have no access to the internet but I've sent them onto my partner to look up.

Have you been following my case from the beginning?

This is a case of false memory and the Judge would not allow me to have Professor Martin Conway's report in the trial. This was not allowed to be mentioned, throughout either. There were so many wrong things during the trial.

Have you heard of Lynne Daniels or Ray Bewry? They are part of my support network. Everyone is trying their very best to help me because it's so wrong and they know I'm innocent.

Thank you for the contact details you sent with your letter, I will be writing to them. Chris Saltrese I tried before and he was too busy to take my case on.

You are so true in saying this rubbish, which it is. We are all a normal family, or was before they ruined it and damaged my children.

The authorities must not get away with it, the truth needs to come out and soon, not 12 years down the line. Christopher Booker was told not to print an article that proved my innocence so someone wants this quiet.

Please let me know of anyone else who may be able to help my situation but of course I mustn't jeopardize my appeals. Many thanks.

Yours sincerely

MBlack
